THE SHOW LAST NIGHT.

"A Georgia Cracker" Presented to a Large Audience.

The Peruchi-Belden company presented "A Georgia Cracker" to a good-sized audience at the Academy last night. The play is a farce comedy, with the scene in a Georgia school house. Mr. Jas. G. Morton as Prof. Jeremiah Ginerack L. L. D., P. D. Q. was the victim of an endless chain of tricks, played on him by his most troublesome scholars, Mr. David Dodge and Miss Jessie Fairlove, Mr. Peruchi playing the former part to perfection. The play was funny from beginning to end, Mr. Peruchi, as usual, being the life of the show.

Tonight "Rip Van Winkle," Joseph Jefferson's masterpiece, will be presented, and the house should be packed. This will probably be the best show presented by the company since the opening of their engagement.

TUCKER-BARRETT WEDDING.

Solemnized in the Presbyterian Church at Matthews Yesterday.

This morning's Charlotte Observer contains a lengthy account of the marriage of Mr. John W. Tucker, of this city, to Miss Hattie Barrett, of Matthews. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church at Matthews at 6:30 o'clock last evening, Dr. J. R. Howerton, of the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte, officiating.

The Observer speaks of the wedding as one of the most brilliant and beautiful ever solemnized in that section. One hundred and fifty invited guests attended the reception at the home of the bride's mother, after the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom passed through Greensboro on No. 36 today, going to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and other northern cities.

Not Littleputian.

The Pauline Littlemissionary society of the First Presbyterian church promises the public an unusually enjoyable time at Mrs. Royster's Friday, from 4 to 10 p.m. With numerous Christmas tricks for old and young, they will have music and good cheer in sandwiches, coffee, tea, chocolate, cakes, cream, sherbet, etc. Come down and help these young ladies in their praiseworthy efforts for the mission cause.

Col. Bryan Passed.

Col. William Jennings Bryan, who recently resigned the colonelcy of the Third Nebraska regiment, passed through Greensboro on the first section of 36 yesterday en route home from Savannah. No one here saw the colonel, as it was not known that he was on until after the train had passed.

A Big Contract.

Mr. Thos. Woodruffe, of this city, manager of the Mt. Airy Granite Works, has closed a contract with the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co., for an enormous quantity of stone from the granite quarries.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Latest News From Washington—The News By Wire Today in a Condensed, Compact Form.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Atlanta, Dec. 15.—President McKinley continues to receive an ovation at the hands of Atlanta people and those in attendance upon the great jubilee.

Ex-mayor Glenn said this morning:

"After his speech last night, the president might make any number of negro appointments in the south and there would hardly be any exceptions taken.

His utterances showed that not only was the past dead but that this is a new country and had the sympathy of all sections; that the north can honor the Confederate dead because they were Americans. The president has carried the city off its feet.

Train after train load of people have been unloaded today and the streets are crowded with sight-seers. The jam today is worse than yesterday. The military and civil parade today was the greatest pageant in the city's history.

General Wheeler commanded five hundred of his old cavalrymen and in the civic parade was ten thousand and school children and four hundred carriages. The president is to speak publicly at three o'clock.

M'KINLEY'S ATLANTA SPEECH.

President McKinley, in his speech yesterday in Atlanta, touched a chord which, in direct communication with the deepest and most profound southern sentiment, caused every heart to swell and burst forth in unrestrained enthusiasm, when he said:

"Every soldier's grave made during the unfortunate civil war is attributed to American valor. And while, when those graves were made we differed widely about the future of the government, those differences were long ago settled by the arbitrament of arms, and the time has now come in the evolution of sentiment and feeling under the providence of God, when in the spirit of fraternity we should share with you in the care of the graves of the Confederate soldiers."

These words sound like an honest utterance from an honest heart. Their simple truth makes them grand and eloquent. He spoke as a Union man to followers of the Confederacy, and he made a pretty speech. It embodied a sentiment which caught his hearers and they responded in a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm. It is just possible, however, that the cheering thousands, under the impulse of the moment, saw more in the speech than was intended. The sentiment about sharing with us in the care of the graves of Confederate soldiers is very pretty; but—

We see in it nothing which indicates any intention on the part of the president, "in the spirit of fraternity," to share with us in the care of those old battle-scarred veterans who are still tottering on this side of the grave—those men who were just as honest in the cause for which they were fighting as any Union man; aye, as the president himself, and who are now just as loyal to the country's flag as any man under the blue arch of heaven. When the time comes that the president can share with us in caring for these and in making their paths green, instead of their graves, then it will be that the "spirit of fraternity" will wear white wings, "fraternity" will be the national anthem, sectional lines will no longer mar the map of the United States and sectional feeling will no longer hold back the love we bear each other.

MR. BRYAN'S VIEWS.

The words of Col. Wm. J. Bryan on imperialism and expansion, published yesterday in this paper, are clear-cut and ring like a bell. In the same interview, Col. Bryan said:

"Some think that the fight should be made against ratification of the treaty, but I would prefer another plan. If the treaty is rejected negotiations must be renewed and instead of settling the question according to our ideas we must settle it by diplomacy, with the possibility of international complications. It will be easier, I think, to end the war at once by ratifying the treaty and then deal with the subject in our own way. The issue can be presented directly by a resolution of congress declaring the policy of the nation upon this subject. The president says in his message that our only purpose in taking possession of Cuba is to establish a stable government and then turn that government over to the people of Cuba. Congress could reaffirm this purpose in regard to the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico. Such a resolution would make a clear-cut issue between the doctrine of self-government and the doctrine of imperialism. We should reserve a harbor and coaling station in Porto Rico and the Philippines in return for service rendered, and I think we would be justified in asking the same concession from Cuba."

"In the case of Porto Rico, where the people have as yet expressed no desire for an independent government, we might with propriety declare our willingness to annex the island, if the citizens desire annexation; but the Philippine Islands are too far away and their people too different from ours to be annexed to the United States, even if they desired it."

Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

At Home in Jail.

Bob Jennings, a ginger colored negro, is in for it now. He was tried at last court for robbing a freight car, but the state could not prove his guilt and Bob came clear. He hadn't been out of jail long before he stole a pair of pants and sold them to George Brown, also colored. The police arrested George and put him in jail, but at his trial yesterday afternoon George proved that he bought the pants from Bob and the latter took George's place in jail.

Dolls and dollies and in fact the whole family is for sale at the Bazaar. Come up and enjoy yourselves.

A. E. Blair returned last night from Archdale, where he has been visiting his mother, who, we regret to learn, is quite ill.

The May Pole drill will interest old and young. Fifteen little girls in rare costumes will participate in the drill at 8 o'clock tonight.

Oysters and refreshments will be served at the Bazaar over Fishblate-Katz store today and tomorrow, for the benefit of St. Andrew's church.

Mr. J. R. Jordan, of Charlotte, passed through the city today going to Winston, where he lectures tonight, for the benefit of the K. of P. lodge, there.

There is a candy kitchen in Winston but the original and only Candy Kitchen, spelled with a "K" is in Greensboro, with the original and only James H. West, as proprietor.

Don't forget the curiosity shop under the direction and supervision of Prof. Bougerre at the Bazaar tonight. Everything up to date and new. If you are not pleased, money refunded.

John Robertson, who was sentenced with the Orrell boys to eighteen months on the county roads for damage to property, has taken an appeal and was bailed last night, getting out of jail about 8 o'clock.

The enumeration of articles in the big ad of Kaufmann by no means covers the immense stock carried by him. The ad, big as it is, gives but a faint idea of the many beautiful novelties in men's furnishings.

Lindau's offer of De Sota flour for Friday and Saturday will give everyone a chance to lay in a barrel or two. Flour always goes higher in winter, so don't wait for the snow to come before buying.

Frank E. Street of Glendale, is visiting the family of R. M. Phillips, on South Elm street. He left home yesterday about nine o'clock and made the trip, about sixty miles on a wheel, reaching Greensboro in time for supper.

Mr. J. K. Newberry, of Virginia, has contracted to make five high grade gold signs for the Simpson-Shields, wholesale shoe company, and three for the Carolina Shoe company, the mammoth retail shoe dealers, of Greensboro.

Among the express transferred from the C. F. & Y. V. train from the south yesterday afternoon was a pretty deer said to have been killed near Wilmington. The deer was of medium size and a nice trim pair of antlers of good length adorned its head. It was marked A. B. Joyton, Winston.

A number of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richardson's friends spent last evening very pleasantly at their residence on King street. Several amusing games were indulged in by the guests. There was music, and the event ended with a candy-pulling which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

W. E. Lewis is preparing to move his stock of goods from the Eagle Foundry building, on Lewis street to, the room formerly occupied by the L. Richardson Drug Company, in the Groome building on South Elm street. The room is being arranged specially for a first-class grocery store.

Shipped Mantles to England.

McClanroch Bros., the hustling mantle, grate and tile dealers of this city have just shipped six handsome mantles to Messrs. Jackson & Glaisier, Darlington, England. This firm is fast building up a big business, which is well merited. They handle the best makes and grades of goods and always give satisfaction. Their business motto is to guarantee satisfaction.

Friday Night.

The skating rink will be open. Ladies with their own skates free. Commencing with Dec. 26th the rink will be opened every afternoon and night.

Headquarters.

Fireworks, the largest stock of all kinds from the little bally firecrackers up to the largest made sky rocket, roman candle, torpedoes, to please the children. Get my prices before purchasing.

Remember, I have the largest stock of 1,000 different kinds of Candy: new nuts, dates, raisins, sweet Florida oranges.

Music may have charms to soothe the savage, but it is the popular airs that give him that tired feeling.

There is nothing, however, that will make a man so downright tired as to tackle a big Christmas turkey with a carving knife that is dull enough to suggest that the cook uses it all the rest of the year in splitting kindling wood. When you have bought your Christmas turkey, let your next move be to Odell's, where they are selling Carvers that are fine, Carvers that are medium, Carvers that are cheap, but all of good material, warranted to cut.
